

Assessment Form for the EPA Award 2009 – Category 4- Innovation in any Aspect of Parking

A Assessment criteria	B Applicants description <small>(to be filled in by entrant)</small>	C Remarks by Board/jury	D Score
Innovation in any Aspect of Parking Category 3:	Project name: City:	Name Jury member:	Date:
Project Description: Give an overview of the project describing the main features of the project or product and the innovative features of the entry. (maximum 100 words).
Situation:
Geographical Location: Describe where the entry can be found in use
Time: When did the project go live, or the product reach the market.
Type: What type of project/product is offered, for example: Construction Lighting Environmental control Payment systems Enforcement process IT Other (describe)

Assessment Form for the EPA Award 2009 – Category 4- Innovation in any Aspect of Parking

Application: Describe how the entry is used (maximum 50 words)
Benefits: Describe the benefits that the entry provides to its users. Describe how the innovation enhances the image of Parking Describe how the innovation improves the experience of parking to customers

Material that should be delivered by all applicants:

Assessment form:

The applicant should fill in all relevant information into the above form, not exceeding the limits given for the number of words allowed.

Attachments:

If the entry is a special project or an on-street project containing technical reports, the form should include an abstract summary of the arguments, sufficient for the board/jury to assess the entry. Reports could be attached for in depth judging, but attachments should not be necessary to assess the entry.

Power-Point presentation:

In addition to the completed assessment form, the applicant should deliver a powerpoint presentation with the maximum of 10 A4 size pages/slides, suited for both printing/copying, and for being run as a continuous presentation, in the exhibition, during the EPC-congress.